26th INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF PHILOSOPHY
GREEK PHILOSOPHY AND MORAL AND POLITICAL ISSUES OF OUR GLOBAL ERA
VOULIAGMENI – ATHENS:12th–17th July 2014

THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR GREEK PHILOSOPHY (IAGP )
THE INTERNATIONAL CENTER FOR GREEK PHILOSOPHY & CULTURE (ICGPC)
THE SOUTH AFRICAN SOCIETY FOR GREEK PHILOSOPHY AND THE HUMANITIES and other academic and cultural institutions and organizations have decided to organise the:

26th INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF PHILOSOPHY

on the topic :

GREEK PHILOSOPHY AND MORAL AND POLITICAL ISSUES OF OUR GLOBAL ERA

The Conference will be held in the town of Vouliagmeni (a sea-side resort of Athens area) at Amarilia Hotel{ Αγίου Νικολάου 13,Saint Nicolas Street, 166 71 Vouliagmeni-Athens, Greece}from 12-17 of July 2014. The Conference aims to provide a broad forum for exploring moral and political issues which are crucial and relevant to our age in relation to the views expressed in Greek philosophy.

One of the extraordinary features of Greek philosophy is that it places human beings, their conduct, and their modes of life and political association into physis. From this vantage point it inquired into the best possible life suited to the well-being of humans, both ideally and within the context of evolving social and political conditions. In this period of radical transformations we may, once again, turn to Greek philosophy to search for guidance and insight rooted in approaches that strive to comprehend human physis and the nature of moral political institutions of our era. We believe that the views of Pre-Socratics and the philosophies of Socrates and Plato, Aristotle and those that emerged during the post Aristotelian era, i.e., the philosophies of Epicurus, the Cynics, the Stoics and the views of other later thinkers can provide the basis for inquiry into the moral and political issues of our age and can serve to define approaches and ways leading to their understanding and providing solution of problems of our age.

The Conference invites philosophers and particularly all those engaged in any of these prominent traditions of Greek philosophy to present papers and to discourse on the relevance of the concepts of these philosophies to the global political and moral issues of far ranging consequence that now face humanity. The Conference is open to all philosophers, specialists in Greek philosophy, to persons conducting research in philosophy, educationists, communication specialists, lawyers, politicians, government officials, and concerned citizens who are interested in understanding the complex relations among moral and political philosophy issues in our global era.

The following topics are the proposed themes for framing the work of the Conference:

1. Solon, Cleisthenes, Aeschylus, Pythagoreans and other Pre-Socratic philosophers' views in relation to the moral and political issues of our era
2. Socrates, Plato and Platonism and the moral and political issues of our global era
3. Aristotle and his tradition and the moral and political issues of our global age

4. The Stoic philosophies and the moral and political issues of our global era
5. The Epicurean philosophy and the moral and political issues of our global age
6. The Cynics and the moral and political issues of our global age
7. The post classical Greek philosophy and the moral and political issues of our global era
8. Papers which compare the above issues of Hellenic philosophy with other philosophical traditions of East and West will also be considered

All Papers presented at the Conference and selected for publication are copyrighted by the Organising Committee and ICGPC and cannot be republished without permission; the exclusive copyright of papers to be published belongs to ICGPC, unless otherwise stated.

The official languages at the Conference will be Greek, English, French and German. However, due to the prohibitively high cost of simultaneous translation, only the first two of these languages will be simultaneously translated.

Greeks who present Papers are kindly asked to submit an acceptable English translation of the latest version of their Papers which will be read at the Conference. This should be submitted to the Conference Secretary one month before the opening of the Conference.

All participants (except Invited Speakers) should send the full texts of their Paper for presentation (two copies) to the Organising committee by 30th of June 2014.

All participants will be notified by e-mail regarding the category to which they have been assigned.
